Application continues on back.

Discover Muncie Public Library's Summer Film School to get three weeks of hands-on video production experience and classes. Learn the filmmaking process by creating six video projects you can use in your professional portfolio. Aimed at high school ages, students get an advantage when looking at college and career because you'll already have filmmaking experience!

Summer Film School - completely free!
Mondays through Fridays June 10-June 28
in the idea studio at Maring-Hunt Library from 2-6pm
2005 S. High St. Muncie IN, 47302

Joining the Summer Film School requires a firm commitment to attend every day of those three weeks. Our limited spots are waiting just for you!

Please turn in your completed applications to any Muncie Public Library branch by Sunday, June 2.

We will contact you regarding your application.
