

Fundraising Policy

The Library will conduct fundraising campaigns. Proceeds from the fundraising campaigns will be deposited into a fund other than the Operating Fund. Monies will be allocated based upon the project or need specified in the fundraising campaign or to a project designated by the Director.

Fundraising activities must support the mission and services of the Library and be in accord with Library values and policies.